

1. FILL IN THE BLANKS WITH A RELATIVE. OMIT THE RELATIVE IF POSSIBLE.

1. The body, which was found yesterday, belonged to an old woman.
2. The business manager with whom I dealt had left the company.
3. I talked to the man whose wife had died the year before.
4. That's the reason (why) I haven't written before.
5. The flight (which/that) I wanted to travel on was delayed.
6. Have you got the money (which/that) I lent you yesterday?
7. Peter, who I had seen earlier, wasn't at the party.
8. This is the machine which/that cost half a million pounds.
9. Mary, who had been listening to our conversation, looked angry.
10. Have you read the book (which/that) I gave you?
11. The house, which they bought three months ago, looks lovely.
12. Mrs. Jackson, who had been ill, died yesterday.
13. We visited the school where my mother taught.
14. I met her last month, when she came to our house.
15. Did they tell you the reason (why) they were late.

2. COMPLETE THE SENTENCES. USE THE INFORMATION GIVEN.

you were with her last night	I applied for it
they were talking about them	I slept in it
we wanted to travel on it	I work with them
I'm living in it	we went to it she's married to him

1. The bed I slept in was too soft.
The be in which I slept was too soft.
2. I didn't get the job (which/that) I applied for.
for which I applied.
3. The man (who/that) she's married to has been married twice before.
to whom she's married
4. The party (which/that) we went to wasn't very enjoyable.
to which we went
5. Who was the girl (who/that) you were with last night?
with whom you were last night?

6. The flight (which/that) we wanted to travel on was fully booked.
on which we wanted to travel
7. I enjoy my job because I like the people (who/that) I work with with whom I work.
8. I wasn't interested in the things (which/ that) they were talking about about which they were talking.
9. The house (which/that) I'm living in is not in very good conditions.
in which I'm living
where I'm living

3. JOIN THESE SENTENCES BY MEANS OF RELATIVE PRONOUNS

1. A man gave me this address. I met him on the train.
The man ( who/that) I met on the train gave me this address .
2. Those are the shops. They don't take credit cards.
Those are the shops which/that don't take credit cards.
3. You gave me an umbrella. I lost it.
I lost the umbrella (which/that) you gave me.
- 4 I slept in a bed. It was rather uncomfortable.
The bed (which/that) I slept in was rather uncomfortable.
5. Everybody went to the party. They enjoyed it very much.
Everybody went to the party which/that they enjoyed very much.
Everybody enjoyed the party (which/that) they went to very much.
6. I saw a film. It was about the Second World War.
The film (which/that) I saw was about the Second World War.
7. We saw the boy. His father was a writer.
We saw the boy whose father was a writer.
8. You bought the painting. I wanted it.
I wanted the painting which you bought.
9. He's the person. His car was stolen.
He is the person whose car was stolen..
10. Boswell wrote a fine biography of Johnson. His own life was far from admirable.
Boswell, whose own life was far from admirable, wrote a fine biography of Johnson.
11. The shamrock is a lucky kind of leaf. It is one of the emblems of Ireland.

The shamrock , which is one of the emblems of Ireland, is a lucky kind of leaf.

The shamrock, which is a lucky kind of leaf, is one of the emblems of Ireland.

12. I borrowed a pen from my friend. It soon ran out of ink.

The pen (which/that) I borrowed from my friend soon ran out of ink.

15. I met a couple. Their luggage disappeared.

I met a couple whose luggage disappeared.